Notes:

This charming little bird can be stitched on 14 count perforated paper for a bookmark or plastic canvas to use as an ornament or door hanger and can also be stitched on fabric and framed.

When making an ornament, you can either stitch the ribbon, or you can omit the ribbon and tie an actual ribbon onto the ornament and use that as the hanger.

I have stitched the white background in this cross stitch design but you can leave it out if you wish. I think it looks better stitched but that is just personal preference.
